

Explanations for filling out the registration form

Please note the following explanations to make it easier for you to fill out the registration form:

1. A separate registration form must be used for each person to be reported. People who belong to the same family can be registered on a joint registration form. With the registration form, confirmation from the landlord and a valid identification document must be presented to the registration authority.
2. The registration form is truthfully and seamless to be filled out in clear writing. If a question does not need to be answered or an answer is not available because it is not too accurate, please enter a line. At the request of the registration authority, other documents must be submitted to prove the information.
- 3 Please do here no registration. The municipal code, which serves statistical purposes and is not identical to the postal code, is entered by the registration authority if it is not already printed on the registration form.
- 4 Please only enter one apartment that is not being retained as your current apartment. As an exception, an apartment that is retained must be entered as a previous apartment if it is not located in the federal territory, the person required to report has not previously been registered in the federal territory and agrees in advance to collect this data.
- 5 With each registration, the person required to register must declare which other apartments they have in the federal territory and which apartment is their Main residence is.

The main apartment is at one indefinite period of time When moving into the apartment, the apartment that is predominantly used during the course of a year, otherwise the apartment that is predominantly used during the reference period. At residents who are married or in a civil partnership, who does not live permanently separated from his or her family or life partner, this is the apartment in which the family or life partners spend most of their time during the course of a year; for minor residents The special regulation of Section 22 Paragraph 2 of the Federal Registration Act applies, according to which their main residence is the main residence of the person with legal custody. single or People who live permanently separated from their family have their main residence at the place where they work or train if they spend most of their time there. The focus of the living relationship is only decisive for the location of the main residence if none of several apartments is used predominantly. Any dwelling other than the resident's predominantly used dwelling in the federal territory is a secondary dwelling.

- 6 Column 9 (nationality/s):
With multiple nationality All nationalities must be stated.
- 7 Column 10 (address from September 1, 1939):
This column is only to be filled out by persons who come from the areas specified in Section 1 Paragraph 2 No. 3 of the Federal Expellees Act (German Eastern Territories formerly under foreign administration, Danzig, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, the former Soviet Union, Poland, Czech Republic, Slovakia). Republic, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, former Yugoslavia, Albania, China).

The question serves to transmit certain data from this group of people to the tracing services (central office for hometown records) in order to fulfill their tasks (Section 45 of the Federal Registration Act).
